Case No. 5:16-cr-94-02

CLERK
BY DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER

The defendant has filed a motion for an additional (30) thirty days within which to review discovery and file pretrial motions. The Government does not oppose the motion.

Accordingly, the Defendant's motion is GRANTED and, Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3161(h)(7), the Court finds that, based on the need for the defense to review discovery and to file pretrial motions, that the ends of justice are best served by granting an extension of time and outweigh the best interests of the defendant and the public to a speedy trial. Denial of this extension of time would deprive counsel for the defendant reasonable time necessary for the effective preparation of the case. Accordingly, pretrial motions shall be filed by May 3, 2017.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that the period of delay resulting from this extension of time shall be excludable in computing the time in which the trial in this case must commence. The time to be excluded as directed above shall commence on April 3, 2017 and continue through May 3, 2017.

Dated at Rutland, in the District of Vermont, this 4th day of April, 2017.

Geoffrey W. Crawford, Judge
United States District Court
